

HUERTA GLOOMY WHEN HE FAILS TO RAISE BOND

Grieved, He Says, That American People Won't Take His Word.

LAWYERS CONFER WITH OFFICIALS

Seek Compromise to Permit Ex-Dictator's Return to Daughter's Home.

El Paso, Tex., July 6.—Offers of financial aid in making his additional bond of $15,000 were received to-day by General Huerta in telegrams from various cities. None of the offers will be accepted. General Huerta said he would not give the required bond, but he can see no advantage unless he has assurance of freedom of movement. He is in consultation with the Federal District Attorney's office seeking a compromise which would enable Huerta to return to his daughter's home without guards and soldiers surrounding the house.

General Francisco Villa is determined to get General Huerta into Chihuahua for trial and execution, and he is exerting every pressure he can bring to bear upon the state authorities to carry his point.

General Ferguson refused to take action, saying he would await a reply from Washington to his message asking for a bona fide government, and if Governor Avila, who made the request for the surrender of Huerta, is the proper person to make such a request.

Carranza Loses 600 in Battle at Paredon

Laredo, Tex., July 6.—Six hundred Carranza troops were killed in an all-day battle yesterday in a fruitless attempt to capture Paredon, a Villa stronghold about thirty miles north-west of Monterrey, according to reports reaching here to-day.

Each edition of the Butterick magazine weighs 850 tons. The cost of postage each month amounts to more than $13,000.

One month's edition of these magazines piled one copy on another would make a stack 14,410 feet high, equal to the altitude of Mt. Rainier.

The total amount of paper used in a year by the Butterick Company is equal to seven times the area of Manhattan Island. It is twice the size of the District of Columbia. It is equal to the combined areas of St. Louis, Boston and Baltimore.

Reel this paper out in a strip one foot wide and it would encircle the world thirty times—or three times the distance from the earth to the moon.

A single copy of a Butterick publication can not possibly indicate the size and scope of the Butterick business, because the human mind can not grasp such a multiplication of units. It is probable that even experienced advertisers do not realize the mighty force which is working for them.

BLACKWELL TALE OF TANNENBAUM STARTS INQUIRY

I. W. W. Leader Files Charges with the State Prison Commissioner.

DR. DAVIS DEFENDS "BRUTAL WARDEN"

Agitator Repeats Bitter Attack on Hayes and Urges Long List of Reforms.

Conditions on Blackwell's Island are so intolerable and the warden is so brutal, in the opinion of Frank Tannenbaum, that he has placed a series of charges denouncing the Department of Correction in the hands of State Prison Commissioner Richard M. Hurd. An investigation of the city institution, based on the Tannenbaum allegations, will probably follow the next meeting of the commission, on July 13, Mr. Hurd said yesterday.

GARMENT TRADE WILL ARBITRATE

Unions and Manufacturers to Air Differences Before Board.

Differences between the Cloak, Suit and Skirt Manufacturers' Protective Association and the Garment Workers' Union will be laid before a board of arbitration to-day. The board, composed of representatives of the two organizations, will meet at the Knickerbocker Hotel to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. A strike of 50,000 garment workers was averted last Saturday, when the manufacturers gave in after a session of the executive board.

A letter from Charles Heinemann, chairman of the executive board, was sent on July 2 stating the willingness of the manufacturers to go before a board of arbitration with the understanding that arbitrable questions be left to a board of arbitration to be subsequently formed if necessary.

RUDYARD KIPLING APPEALING FOR RECRUITS.

English author on platform at Southport, Lancashire, addressing meeting of 10,000 workers.

my office would proceed to Sing Sing for the purpose of selecting men for transfer, and requesting him to confer with them regarding the matter of transfer. He informed me that he had called me by phone, and I again urged him to co-operate with the men I had detailed. He refused, however. My representatives remained at the prison for two days. They were guided in making the selections, not only by the criminal and prison records of the men, but by the advice of the deputy warden, principal keeper and superintendent of industries.

"During all the time that Mr. Osborne continued this most barbarous practice of doubling up men he was advised that there was no need to do so. It would appear in any way to interfere with Mr. Osborne's plan for self-government among inmates, and I have never done so, except in the matter of a single inmate, named Day, by a prisoner named Day, which I prohibited. As I am officially responsible for the transfer of inmates from one prison to another, I felt that I could not longer be in any way responsible for conditions. The claim that the inmates of Sing Sing fear that they will lose privileges as a result of Mr. Osborne's ceasing to be warden, is, in my knowledge, entirely without foundation. The most important privileges now enjoyed by them, such as 'free' of conversation, 'privilege' of writing letters, 'daily exercise in the yard,' 'Sunday' and 'rest' days, are all enjoyed by them now before Mr. Osborne became warden. Even motion pictures and other forms of proper entertainment at proper times were also allowed.

"I may say that upon assuming the office of Superintendent of State Prison, the 'honor system' was introduced in all the prisons. Men whose record entitled them to special consideration were given an opportunity to work on farms and highways, and in various other outdoor employments. Last year more than one thousand different prisoners were so employed. I am pleased to say that in very few instances was the system abused. When I assumed office, I immediately inaugurated many changes as a part of the honor system, which I decided to establish in all the prisons. I found that it was necessary to make other provisions for one inmate to speak to another. Freedom of conversation is now permitted. Prisoners were classified according to the number of convictions: first, second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth, sixteenth, seventeenth, eighteenth, nineteenth, twentieth, twenty-first, twenty-second, twenty-third, twenty-fourth, twenty-fifth, twenty-sixth, twenty-seventh, twenty-eighth, twenty-ninth, thirtieth,
